AN ICON OF HOSPITALITY IN FLORENCE

Guests at the Brunelleschi hotel will love its special atmosphere, a blend of eras reflecting the history of the building. The entrance opens onto a welcoming little piazza in the historic centre of Florence and incorporates in its façade a circular Byzantine tower from the 6th century and a medieval church, which have been completely restored with their original features intact. Inside, a private museum contains artefacts discovered during the restoration of the Tower and a caldarium (hot baths) of Roman origin, now forming part of the foundations. The hotel has been renovated in an extremely elegant classic contemporary style, where light colours and the characteristic grey of pietra serena marble provide the dominant notes. The hotel's Santa Elisabetta Restaurant offers fine dining: located on the first floor of the Byzantine tower part of the hotel in an intimate room with only 7 tables, the enviable location and refined atmosphere of the restaurant complement the exquisite cuisine of Chef Rocco De Santis. Alternatively, the more informal "Osteria della Pagliazza" on the ground floor of the hotel offers an appetising menu of dishes based on local ingredients. hotelbrunelleschi.it
